NAEYC Public Policy Forum -TEACH- SECA- HCCT

To be successful in our shared work on behalf of all children, families, and early childhood educators, we must be more prepared, engaged, and connected. Whether you are taking your first step, or reaching new heights, children and families need you to become the strongest advocate you can be. To help you get there,

Register for the 2018 Public Policy Forum today.

2018 Public Policy Forum

Sunday, March 4 - Tuesday, March 6

Crystal Gateway Marriott in Arlington, Virginia

(Please Note: We have a new location that's more affordable, convenient to Reagan National Airport and Capitol Hill, and with capacity to accommodate more advocates than ever before!)

Cost:

- $25/person for Sunday's half-day electoral advocacy bootcamp
- $50/person for Monday and Tuesday, which includes expert policy briefings, skill-building breakout sessions, and a Day on Capitol Hill.

The registration deadline is Wednesday, January 31, 2018, and state teams are forming fast. Contact your State Team Lead to receive the event registration link and reserve your spot now!

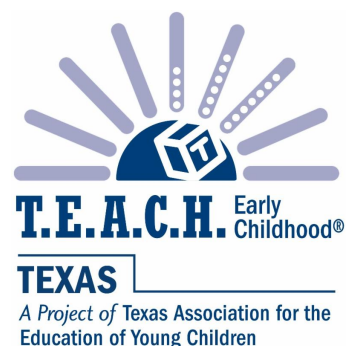

Remember, the new year is the perfect time to recommit, plan, and act!
