

Texas Association for the Education of Young Children

JOIN US FOR OUR VIRTUAL PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES

Inclusive Early Childhood Classrooms

February 24, 2024

8:30-9:00 - MSU
information and
TXAEYC intros

9:00-11:30 Speaker

Scan the QR code to register and receive Zoom link

This virtual workshop will offer information on how to set up effective inclusive early childhood classroom environments with details about the interrelated physical, social, and temporal components of those environments. This information can easily be implemented in your classrooms

Presentor:

April Crutcher, M.Ed.

Instructor of Special Education

West College of Education

MIDWESTERN STATE UNIVERSITY

A Member of the Texas Tech University System

April Crutcher is an Instructor of Special Education at Midwestern State University. With a Masters degree in Education focusing on Early Childhood Special Education and 18 years experience in education, 16 of those years as an Educational Diagnostician. She is working on her Ph.D. in Special Education at Texas Women's University.